Tasks (Can be completed in any order)

- VE Day word search
- Poppy art- We use the symbol of a poppy as a way of remembering all the brave men and women who have served or served in the armed forces. Here are some ideas.

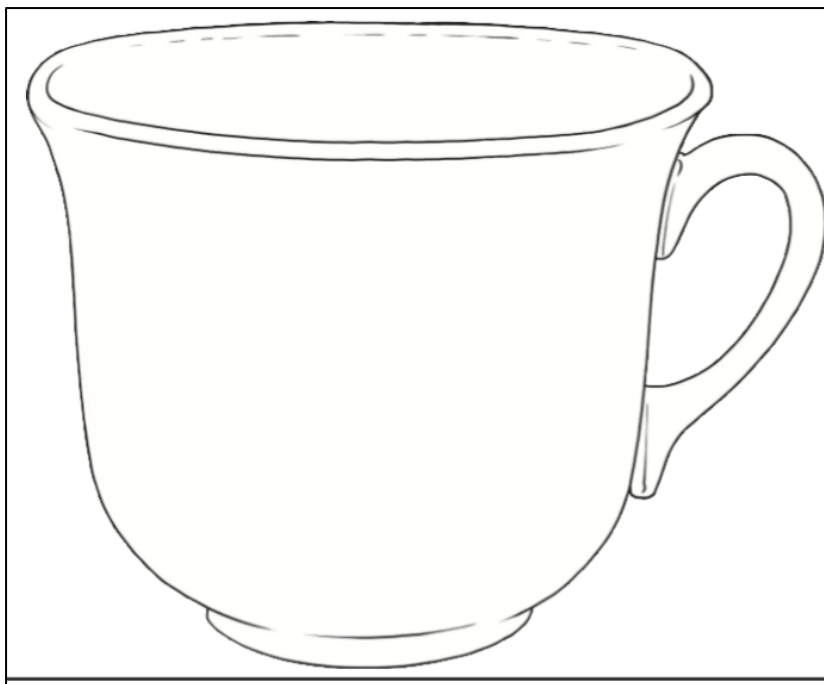

- You could have a go at some wartime recipes. Only if you already have the ingredients available. Do not go out especially! Take photos. You could write a set of instructions for someone else to follow. You can then write a food review about how it tasted.

- Design a tea cup. VE Day was commemorated in many ways, including the production of special cups.

- Crack the code!

Morse code is a communication system that represents the alphabet as dots and dashes. Can you write a secret code for family member?

Learn Morse Code

You can write Morse code, or send it via sounds or lights.
Dots represent a short sound or light, and dashes a long sound or light.

- 'Imagine you are a soldier on the front line during the Second World War. You have just found out that the war in Europe is over. Write a diary entry about the experience, and how you feel.'
- To celebrate the end of WW2 people held huge street parties. You could make your own flags of bunting or design posters to put up in your windows. You could have a little party or picnic of your own with your family.
