Eva Crane - Sheet A

To describe Eva Crane and her work with bees. Work with a partner to complete this timeline of Eva Crane's life. Cut out the facts and stick them in the correct space. Add the date to each fact. 2007 1912 1941 Eva Crane died at the Eva Crane was born She taught physics at age of 95. in London. Sheffield University. 1990 and 1999 1942 Crane received a She wrote two beehive as a wedding encyclopaedias about bees, their life cycle gift. and honey. planit Science | Year 5 | Scientists and Inventors | Eva Crane | Lesson 5

Crane edited two scientific journals about bees.

She founded the Bee Research Association. Crane was awarded an OBE by the Queen.

She achieved a PhD, or doctorate, in nuclear physics.